

TIMES LETTERS 2/12/16

Braco, Perthshire

Wild swimming

Sir, Edward Lucas (Dec 26) is right about the joys of unregulated swimming in natural places, but what he does not add is that this pleasure is much greater if the swimming costume is left at home. The widespread, but wrong, presumption that you have to wear a costume to swim removes a vital connection with the natural environment that is fundamental to its freedom and full enjoyment.

DUNCAN HEENAN
Naturist Action Group, Isle of Wight

Blighty, of course, cannot afford such a sumptuous get-up for Blighty

it will e contra
Germa
disbel
spend where same
Why
where
IAN
Ca

F

Sir
ma
to
ca
as oi
co le